MUSKOWEKWAN FIRST NATION

Muskowekwan Spotlight – Beatrice Wallace- Little Chief

Beatrice Wallace-Little Chief’s Mother is the late Mary-Jane Wolfe from Muskowekwan First Nation. Recently, Beatrice purchased a company called Tec Computers to compliment her husband- Fergus Little Chief’s business which is Rare Earth Recycling. Working together Beatrice and her husband intend to find success in the new age of technology. They are here to help you with any of your computer and technology needs. Tec Computers offers a wide array of tech support and set up to help you with your home computer and business computer networking requirements. Beatrice is grateful for all of the support she has received from her family and friends. She looks forward to working with the people of Muskowekwan and other First Nation bands across Saskatchewan to solve their technology problems.
